Upcoming CAGERS 2.0 Programs:

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8

THIS MONTH'S PROGRAM:

Magistrate Samuel Keirns
Allen County Superior Court

This program will provide an overview of the Allen County ReEntry Court Program and explore how businesses can support successful reentry efforts while minimizing risk and strengthening the local workforce.

Established in 2001 as Indiana's first reentry court program, the Allen County ReEntry Court Program equips individuals returning from the Indiana Department of Correction with the tools, resources, and support needed to successfully reintegrate into the community. The program focuses on high-risk offenders, providing enhanced supervision and targeted services based on evidence-based risk and needs assessments.

The program's ultimate goal is to help participants achieve long-term stability through gainful employment, safe and stable housing, and sustained sobriety. Participants graduate upon successfully completing a structured program that typically lasts between 10-18 months.
