THIS MONTH'S PROGRAM:

Elissa McGauley, AICP
Director of Redevelopment

ALLEN COUNTY
INDIANA

Join us for an engaging presentation by Elissa McGauley, Allen County's Director of Redevelopment, as she outlines how strategic redevelopment and economic development initiatives are shaping the county's future.

Elissa will walk us through the tools that make Allen County competitive — from traditional incentives like tax abatement and economic development revenue bonds to innovative approaches including land banking, tax increment reimbursement, shell building support, and targeted public infrastructure investments.

These efforts have been and are driving real opportunities for industrial and commercial growth. Don't miss this chance to hear what's happening, what's next, and how these initiatives strengthen our ability to attract and retain development.
